7 AT SEATTLE

8 ABRYEL WILDER, et al.,

9 Plaintiffs,

10 v.

11 UNITED STATES, et al.,

12 Defendants.

Cause No. C21-0206RSL

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

13 On March 12, 2021, plaintiff Abryel Wilder was ordered to provide a more definite 14 statement of her claims that clearly and concisely identified the acts of which each named 15 defendant is accused and how those acts violated her legal rights. Dkt. # 6. The Court pointed 16 out a number of fatal flaws in the original pleading and notified plaintiff that “[t]he amended 17 complaint will replace the existing complaint in its entirety.” Dkt. # 6 at 6. Plaintiff subsequently 18 filed an “Amended Complaint and Request for Injunction” (Dkt. # 7) and a “Response to Order 19 for More Definite Statement” (Dkt. # 9).
20

21 Whether considered separately or together, plaintiff’s submissions are deficient under the 22 standards articulated in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2).
23 There is no indication that Ms. Wilder is authorized to act as a representative of any of the other 24 named plaintiffs. The new complaint(s) total over 300 pages (including various attachments) and 25 repeat many of the fatal errors previously identified. The vast majority of the defendants listed at

1 Dkt. # 7-1 at 3-7 would have no idea of what they are accused, and the few who could make out
2 what they were supposed to have done would likely have no idea how the alleged conduct
3 infringed plaintiff's rights. Neither defendants nor the Court are obligated to search through 4 hundreds of pages in order to determine whether a viable cause of action is alleged: the burden 5 of providing "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to 6 relief" falls squarely on plaintiff. She has not met her burden

9 The above-captioned matter is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice. No additional 10 documents will be accepted for filing under this cause number other than a Notice of Appeal. If 11 plaintiff opts to refile a complaint related to these events, she is strongly advised to name only a 12 single defendant and confine the factual allegations to that defendant's conduct and the legal 13 claims against that defendant. Absent allegations showing that Ms. Wilder is a licensed attorney 14 or otherwise authorized to act as a representative of another person, any renewed claims should 15 be brought only on her own behalf.
